Certero for Enterprise SAM

The only enterprise-scale Software Asset Management solution purpose-built for SaaS delivery models.

Certero for Enterprise SAM is built for today and tomorrow, not yesterday.

Whether that's the need to address new software licensing challenges, to meet digital transformation goals or manage changing technology consumption habits, Certero for Enterprise SAM is the only credible tool built from the ground-up to be delivered in the cloud.

The result is that Certero for Enterprise SAM makes for happy users. Just take a glance at the five-star reviews on Gartner Peer Insights.

What makes Certero for Enterprise SAM different?

Certero for Enterprise SAM is anything but just another SAM tool. It stands apart from the competition in many ways, from its use of hyper-scalable cloud architecture to deliver an unrivalled implementation and onboarding experience, to advanced inventory and licensing capabilities to support your most complex and expensive software publishers.
